

Date: _____ Name: _____

Student Conduct and Students with Special Needs Survey (Cycle Three)

True or False

Circle the appropriate response for the corresponding statement.

- T F 1. A special needs route driver requires specialized training within thirty days.
- T F 2. Managing student behavior is a top priority of school bus drivers who want to drive safely.
- T F 3. Students with special needs can be suspended from the school bus as many times as regular education students.
- T F 4. Students who cross the street behind the bus should be allowed to continue this practice without any interference.
- T F 5. If a fight occurs on the bus, the first thing a driver should do is run back to stop the fight.
- T F 6. If a student has a seizure, the driver should just continue driving towards the school or the student's home.
- T F 7. Confidentiality issues apply to all students who ride a bus to and from school.
- T F 8. Elementary school students can be very emotional if something goes wrong on the bus. They need to be handled with care and compassion.
- T F 9. Drivers should intimidate students into complying with the school bus safety rules.
- T F 10. All Special education students ride on special needs vehicles.
- T F 11. Documentation of student conduct should be limited to misbehavior.
- T F 12. Special needs students may develop a strong attachment to the bus driver and bus assistant and act out when one or the other is missing.
- T F 13. Federal and state governments have made a commitment to provide an equal education for all students.
- T F 14. It is effective to yell at the students and parents when misbehavior occurs on a bus.
- T F 15. If you must evacuate a vehicle, calmly instruct the students as to what you are doing and what you want them to do.
- T F 16. The best way to get compliance with a disruptive student is to explain why their behavior is not safe and that you are concerned for their own personal safety.
- T F 17. Students never question authority if you are fair and consistent.
- T F 18. Drivers should not ride the lift up or down with a student using a wheelchair.
- T F 19. School staff may react negatively if a school bus driver demands certain consequences.
- T F 20. Drivers need to determine when they are not physically or emotionally able to drive on any given day and contact their supervisor.

